NOTE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Note 1. In the opinion of management of Great Expectations and Associates, Inc., the unaudited financial statements of Great Expectations and Associates, Inc. for the interim period shown, include all adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position at July 31, 2000, and the results of operations and cash flows for the period then ended. The results of operations for the interim periods shown may not be indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year. These statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in Great Expectation's Form 10-K for the year October 31, 1999.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations 6

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Great Expectations remains in the development stage and, since inception, has experienced no significant change in liquidity or capital resources. Great Expectation's balance sheet as of July 31, 2000, reflects a current asset value of $0, and a total asset value of $22,099 in the form of deferred offering costs. Great Expectations will carry out its plan of business as discussed above. Great Expectations cannot predict to what extent its liquidity and capital resources will be diminished prior to the consummation of a business combination or whether its capital will be further depleted by the operating losses, if any of the business entity which Great Expectations may eventually acquire.

Results of Operations

During the period from June 5, 1987 (inception) through July 31, 2000, Great Expectations has engaged in no significant operations other than organizational activities, acquisition of capital and preparation for registration of its securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. No revenues were received by Great Expectations during this period.

For the current fiscal year, Great Expectations anticipates incurring a loss as a result of expenses associated with registration under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and expenses associated with locating and evaluating acquisition candidates. Great Expectations anticipates that until a business combination is completed with an acquisition candidate, we will not generate revenues other than interest income, and may continue to operate at a loss after completing a business combination, depending upon the performance of the acquired business.

Need for Additional Financing

If a merger is consummated, the proceeds will be used for general corporate expenses at the will of the new management.

Great Expectations believes that our existing capital will not be sufficient to meet Great Expectation's cash needs, including the costs of compliance with the continuing reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for a period of approximately one year. Accordingly, in the event Great Expectations is able to complete a business combination during this period, it anticipates that our existing capital will not be sufficient to allow us to accomplish the goal of completing a business combination. Great Expectations will depend on additional advances from stockholders.

We cannot assure you that the available funds will ultimately prove to be adequate to allow it to complete a business combination, and once a business combination is completed, Great Expectation's needs for additional financing are likely to increase substantially. Management and other stockholders have not made any commitments to provide additional. We cannot assure you that any additional funds will be available to Great Expectations to allow us to cover our expenses. Even if Great Expectation's cash assets prove to be inadequate to meet Great Expectation's operational needs, Great Expectations might seek to compensate providers of services by issuances of stock in lieu of cash.

We do not expect to purchase or sell any significant equipment, engage in product research or development and do not expect any significant changes in the number of employees.

Signatures

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
